The collection of the Christian Church Sunday-school yesterday for Home Missions amounted to $110.01.

The Ladies' Committee of the Y. M. C. A. will meet in the Association rooms tomorrow afternoon at 3:30 o'clock.

Mr. John Walsh of Newport came up Saturday and spent Sunday with his parents, returning home this morning. While here he bought a suit of clothes; he says he can get better bargains and better goods than in Cincinnati. John is right, too.

What was the matter with the gas Saturday night? About 10:45 the light went out and Egyptian darkness prevailed. Belated patrons in the barber shops were caught in a pickle—some were half shaved and others were well lathered, and in order to complete the job tallow dips were brought into service.

Our stock of Diamonds and Watches is too large. We are making low prices in order to reduce our large stock of Diamond Ear Drops, Studs, Rings, Pendants and Brooches. With every dollar cash purchase you get a ticket on the handsome diamond ring.

BAD ACCIDENT

Dawson Turner Had An Arm Maimed by a Corn Shredder

Saturday afternoon Dawson Turner, while engaged in manipulating a corn shredder on William Lindsay's place near Lewisburg, had his right hand caught in the machine and mangled in such a manner as to necessitate amputating the arm just below the elbow.

Mr. Turner is about 35 years old and besides a wife, is the father of six children, who are entirely dependent upon his labor for support.

This is the third man that has been maimed in this vicinity by a corn shredder in the past three weeks.

These machines seem to have a knack of taking off a hand or an arm as well as shredding corn, and the best thing to do under the circumstances is to procure a life or accident policy before fooling with the blamed things.

HUNTING IN ORDER

Men Embrace the Opportunity to Engage in the Sport

It is fortunate that the hunting season opened when it did. It gave the boys an opportunity of absenting themselves from the city during the sitting of the Grand Jury.

Circuit Court convened this morning, and the exodus of men with guns on their shoulders and dogs trailing in the rear was merely an incident and in nowise prearranged.

It is an open secret in the inner circle that there will be something doing when those monitors of public morals get down to real business.

The drag net is to be set wide and deep, and when the haul is made something more than minnows is expected to be caught in the meshes.

In fact, it is said this Grand Jury will set a high water mark for the amount and kind of work it will perform.

If what is said be true they have hung the black flag on the outer wall and a fight will be made all along the line on vice of all descriptions.

They propose to do something more than drawing their per diem and reporting the Jail and public buildings in excellent shape and winding up with a big dinner at the county house or infirmary.

We shall see what we will see.

GRANGE CITY VOTE

Judge Harbeson Will Hear Further Arguments Here Tomorrow

The petition filed by J. B. Bennett Thursday asking for a mandatory injunction to compel the Canvassing Board to count the Grange City vote came before Circuit Judge Harbeson Saturday at Flemingsburg and was argued without any conclusion being reached.

The hearing was postponed until tomorrow, when it will come up again for further argument in this city, where Judge Harbeson will hold Court during the week.

DIAMOND NIPPER

William Finn, Alias Thomas Lowery, to Be Tried Again

One of the most important criminal cases that will be fought over again at this term of the Mason Circuit Court is that of William Finn.

This man was arrested by Constable Matt Chisholm as he stepped off a C. and O. passenger train at the Depot in this city Wednesday, October 7th, 1903, being charged with having nipped a $50 diamond from the cravat of Mr. W. R. Varian while the two were occupying a seat together en route to this city.

At that time he was going under the name of Thomas Lowery.

Strenuous efforts were made at the time both in this city and in Covington by unknown but evidently influential friends for his release.

The diamond was returned to the owner, and a money consideration offered provided Mr. Varian would drop the prosecution.

The latter proposition was refused and the case went to trial.

Notwithstanding Finn was defended in an able and masterly manner by Thomas D. Slattery he was convicted and sentenced to the Penitentiary for a period of ten years.

He had only been in prison for a few months when he was returned to the County Jail here for safe keeping, his lawyer, Mr. Slattery, having his case sent back for a rehearing.

Finn is a handsome fellow as well as a man of education.

He has powerful and moneyed friends somewhere who are moving heaven and earth for his freedom.

There is no question as to his guilt, but how his trial will end remains to be seen.

He has already served over 13 months in prison.

STATE'S GREATEST ORATOR

Death at Lexington of Colonel W. C. P. Breckinridge

Colonel William Campbell Preston Breckinridge, soldier, statesman, lawyer and journalist, peacefully breathed his last at 11:40 o'clock Saturday at his home in Lexington, surrounded by his family.

Death came without a struggle.

All Kentucky joins Lexington in mourning her most distinguished citizen. From the highest to the lowest Colonel Breckinridge claimed his admirers; the newsboy knew him as well as his colleagues at the Bar. From the day he appeared in the Courthouse at Lexington in his most insignificant case, Colonel Breckinridge's presence was felt in that vicinity by the people, and from that day on his talents grew in the esteem of the populace every hour until they finally made him a National character.

His magnetism pervaded any assemblage he entered or any company in which he mingled. Since the death of our own beloved Wadsworth, Colonel Breckinridge has been without a rival in Kentucky as orator or man of literary attainments.

Deafness Cannot be Cured by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free.

Your Overcoat

should mark you as a man whose clothes are beyond criticism in style and fit. Few clothes have that distinction, because there so few tailors who know how to bring it about. Our Rochester "Smart Overcoats" are filled with a style that adapts itself to the wearer far more readily than most custom tailor-made Overcoats. Our "Cravenette and Mackinette" Overcoats, absolutely water and wind proof, have precisely the same lines that our Dress Overcoats have. Our Men's, Boys' and Children's stock of Suits and Overcoats comprise so many styles and varieties that you will surely do yourself an injustice if you do not look them over when you are ready to buy your fall and winter outfit. With us you do not have to choose from one or two lines of goods, but you have pick and choice from at least a dozen of the best custom clothing manufacturers in the world. The same is true in our Men's and Boys' Shoes. Hanan, Douglas and Walkover are our lines. Not another shoe house in the state that controls these three lines. We have some special bargains in elegant Men's Underwear. Our 50c and $1 Underwear we deem the best values we ever offered. Our new fall Manhattan Shirts are in. GOEBELISM won't go with Congress.

SOME of the beauties of Goebelism as she is practiced in Kentucky may be shown up before the next Congress.

WHAT an industrious lot the Fleming County Democratic Election Commissioners are! They even got up at a quarter past midnight to count the returns.

HOLD on, boys; don't be hoggish. You ought to have been satisfied with the electoral vote of the entire North and part of the "Solid South;" but here you've gone and elected a Republican Legislature in Missouri, and that Legislature will elect a Republican United States Senator in place of Senator COKKRELL.

JUST as he was sailing away for Europe a few days ago Editor HENRY WATTERSON tossed this bouquet over the Castle Garden wall—

"I can see neither hope nor future for the Democratic party until something comes along to break up the Republican party. The talk of possible Democratic victory in 1908 is absurd.

"If wheat dropped to forty cents a bushel and corn to ten cents, if cholera broke out in the Philippines and yellow fever in Wall street, or if some great National disturbance or great natural upheaval which no one can foresee broke out, there might be some chance for the Democratic party four years from now.

"The Republicans have all the necessary resources to hold on to the position they have now. They are armed with Krag-Jorgensen, while the Democrats have nothing but bows and arrows. The Democrats have no money. I guess it was 'Pull Dick, pull devil' up at their headquarters during the campaign, and now that it is all over, I don't believe they have enough money left to buy a bottle of whisky."

KENTUCKY having landed once more on the Democratic side, it might be well to know if the Commissioners still intend to build the New Million Dollar Capitol in that sink-hole at Frankfort.

THE Kentucky Democratic papers have already arranged a factional war among Kentucky Republicans over the division of Uncle Sam's mince pie. They say the "hungry ones" object to incumbents in office being given a third term.

ABOUT eighteen months ago Louisville's inner circle of most select and exclusive society fairly fell over itself to entertain and worship "Mrs. LOUIS V. BELL, wife of a New York multimillionaire, stock broker and turfman."

Among her other attractions was a $50,000 pearl necklace; and this was too much for Louisville "society." It fell at her feet and fairly worshiped her—and the necklace, too. The necklace was the talk of the city, and society women did not consider that they had met if they did not ask: "Have you seen Mrs. BELL's necklace?"

Card and theater parties, dinners and lunches, drives and dances, with a few musicales and golf engagements thrown in, followed in rapid succession—and all for "Mrs. BELL."

But just about the time the Roosevelt cyclone struck the country, Louisville society also got a "jolt," for it turned out that Mrs. BELL was just a dashing member of the demi-monde named EVELYN M. CLARK, who had been simply living and traveling with millionaire BELL as his wife.

BRONCHITIS

OFTEN THE SEED OF CONSUMPTION.

Druggist John C. Pecor Tells the People of Maysville the Quickest Means to Cure It.

For years cod liver oil has been known to possess remarkable curative and healing properties for throat, bronchial and lung troubles, but, as a famous physician has said, on account of the grease it contains, it has been difficult for people to take enough of it into their systems to combat a thoroughly settled disease.

"Now, however," continued Mr. Pecor, "we have Vinol, which contains in a highly concentrated form all of the medicinal curative elements actually taken from fresh cod's livers, but without a drop of oil or grease to upset the stomach and retard its work, and there is no limit to the amount any person can take into their system to overcome disease. Here are two letters that have just come to our attention:

"Mrs. Louisa Stover of Elkhart, Ind., writes: 'For a long time I suffered with bronchial trouble and feared consumption. I could not seem to get any relief from cough medicines, old forms of cod liver oil or emulsions. I coughed badly, and my chest was sore and irritated. Vinol has healed the soreness and stopped the cough and has strengthened and invigorated my whole system.'

"Mrs. John Hoskins, Bangor, Penn., writes that Vinol cured her son of bronchitis from which he had suffered for years after everything else had failed.

"We ask every person in Maysville suffering from chronic colds, coughs, bronchitis, or who need an invigorator and strength-creating medicine to try Vinol on our guarantee to return the money if it fails. JOHN C. PECOR, Druggist.

Today marks the beginning of the end. Saturday evening will tell the tale. The candidates as well as the rabbit will be kept on the jump all week, the one to save his purse and the other to escape with its life.

HOO-RAY FOR HEN-RAY!

Maysville Indian Royally Entertained By Lexington Redmen

Lexington Leader.

A reception was tendered by the Redmen Friday night to Great Chief of Records Henry Wood Ray of Maysville.

At the Council of the Tribe the Chief's Degree was conferred upon a class of candidates and long talks were made by many of the Chiefs present.

The Widows and Orphans Home was the topic most favored and aroused unbounded enthusiasm. The movement to establish the Home in the immediate future is meeting with great favor.

After the tribal session the members adjourned to Glenn's, where covers were laid for all the present and past Chiefs.

The recent death of the Tribe's oldest Chief, Thomas A. Hornsey, cast a pall of gloom over the assembly, and in honor of his memory the menu was discussed without toast except with bowed heads the brothers listened to a touching tribute by the distinguished guest to "The Vacant Chair."

MORANSBURG.

The Christian Church would not accommodate the large crowd of sympathizing friends and relatives of Miss Myrtle Sheeler, whose sad death occurred Tuesday last after one week's illness of pneumonia. Sad indeed is the death of one in whose life there was such a sweet influence for good; few are they that can die and on a dying bed be resigned to the Father's will as she making, her wishes known, selecting the hymns and her resting place, telling them she was ready, how she wished to be robed, and as she lay in the white casket, robed as a bride (as she was soon to be) she was beautiful in death as in life. The family has the sympathy of this entire community.
